

*The School of Prophets
Tuition Agreement*

I _____ agree to be committed to make monthly payments toward tuition for each session of The School of the Prophets, A Ministry birthed out The House of the Prophets International Church Network (THOTPICN). This agreement also states that all registration and tuition is not refundable. All tuition paid must be used within a one year term to be credited.

The amount of $50 will be paid at the time of registration and the tuition of $200 for students outside the ministry and $125 for students of The House of the Prophets International Church Network students will be paid in full before any credits, certification or licensing can be issued. If payment is monthly, I agree to pay on the first of every month of attendance according to the set payment schedule. If payments are not made in a timely manner I may be subject to an additional charge of a late fee and/or temporary suspension.

All agreements and policies are subject to change and are at the discretion of Margo Moore-Valentine Ministries, Inc. As A person of character and integrity I will make all necessary attempts to honor this agreement in good faith in applying my signature below.
